

New mobile premium format: Slide-In

With 7 million new mobile Internet users in two years and 40% of our global traffic, mobile browsing is booming (on Audiofanzine as elsewhere).

To reach this growing audience more effectively, Audiofanzine is offering a new mobile-specific ad format: the Slide-In.

This premium format provides the highest visibility because your message will display:

- across the entire screen width
- over the content
- on every page (two displays per day, per IP address)
- regardless of the scroll position on the page

With the Slide-In, our 20,000 unique daily mobile users can't miss your communication!

To celebrate the launching of this new offer and support the economic recovery, Audiofanzine is offering 50% off the Slide-Ins from April to August, 2020.

So you'll benefit from a daily rate of only €200 instead €400.
